OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE,
Augusta, March 1, 1866.

CIRCULAR.

THE Act of the 23d of February last, providing pensions for certain classes of disabled soldiers and the widows and minor children of those deceased of the War of 1861, will necessarily impose upon the State Department duties somewhat analogous to those of the Pension Bureau at Washington, though of a comparatively limited character. Considerable time will therefore be required by the Council, in whom is vested the supervision of this new department of business, in determining the mode of procedure and preparing the requisite blanks therefor.

Early in the ensuing May session of that Honorable body, forms and regulations, with a copy of the law, will be promulgated.

Applicants under this statute, who are, or may be, in the receipt of a pension from the United States Government, will not require the assistance of agents or attorneys in preparing or presenting their claims for the State pension.

MUTTY'S

Friction Feed Roller,

FOR CIRCULAR SAWS.

PATENTED JANUARY 23d, 1866.

THIS INVENTION is applicable to all Circular Saws provided with stationary tables and used for re-sawing lumber.

It reduces the labor of sawing one half, and fifty per cent. more lumber can be sawed with, than without its use. It is applied without change of existing machinery; is not liable to get out of repair, and not expensive to apply.

It has been in practical use on the Penobscot river for one year, where the above facts have been fully and satisfactorily demonstrated, as is shown by the certificates of master mill-men, machinists, owners and operators of mills appended hereto.

The undersigned have for the past season witnessed the practical use of MUTTY'S FEED ROLLER in re-sawing lumber, and we cheerfully recommend it as a practical, economical, and labor-saving invention, destined to come into general use in all cases where lumber is re-sawed upon stationary tables. We are fully satisfied from our own observation that the saving effected, and extra amount cut by its use, is fully as large as the estimate above given.

Despatches to the Evening Times.

Later from New Orleans—How the President's Peace Proclamation is Received—Washington News—Fires in New York.

NEW ORLEANS, April 4.

The Methodist Conference has organized, Bishop Andrews presiding, Bishop Early assisting, and Dr. Sumner, Secretary. A standing committee of one from each State was appointed. The city clergymen comprise the committee on public worship.—Preaching has been arranged for every night. One hundred delegates are present, and one hundred more are coming. A letter from Bishop Sante advises the name of Southern to be retained. This is the first conference held in eight years.

A dangerous crevasse has appeared 5 miles below the city, but on the opposite bank.—Twenty feet of bank has gone out, and the gap is increasing. The river is rising.

It is considered here that the President's proclamation is equal to a general amnesty, and Benjamin and Slidell will return to Louisiana.

CHARLESTON, April 5.

The conflagration this afternoon was extensive. Seven brick buildings were destroyed, together with a heavy stock of merchandise. The block was located in King street, and known as Robb's Range. Loss estimated at $100,000; insured $75,000, mostly in Northern offices.

WASHINGTON, April 5.

A mass meeting of the friends and supporters of the Administration of Andrew Johnson was held to-night in front of the City Hall. Among the speakers were Senator Cowan, Representative Smith, and Gen. Meigs.

A. H. Stephens called at the Executive Mansion early to-day, and renewed his request for an audience with the President, which after some delay was granted. At least 100 persons were there to-day, waiting for interviews.

Congress will doubtless pass a bill to secure the discharged soldiers from robbery by unprincipled claim agents who have flooded the country with circulars, promising to obtain for them the benefits which the law does not allow.

NEW YORK, April 6.

Hon. James S. Pike, Minister to Holland, has resigned. His resignation takes effect June 1st.

Several large fires are burning this morning. One on Fulton street, the Clarsmont Hotel, and buildings 200, 202 and 204 Broadway; another on Barclay street, corner of Broadway; another between Canal and Lispenard streets, and the fourth the Tremont House on Broadway.

NEW YORK, April 6.

Steamer City of New London arrived here this morning from New London, having been in collision. Capt. Smith reports this a. m. at 2 o'clock was run into by the steamer Moncton, which left here last night for Derby, Conn. The New London was struck about ten feet abaft the stern, and cut almost completely through the hull and below the water line. Having a tight bulkhead she makes little water. The Moncton was badly stove, and was run ashore in Lloyd's harbor. Her passengers were brought here by the New London. Nobody was injured.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 5.

The Canal Commissioners have resolved that the canals shall be opened for navigation, May 1st, except the Champlain canal, which will be opened may 7th.

NEW YORK, April 6.

The Claremont Hotel on Fulton-st., conducted by J. D. Jones, was almost destroyed by fire this forenoon. The premises of J. M. Thorburn, on John street, were slightly damaged by water. A fire on the corner of Broadway and Barclay streets destroyed the old building formerly known as Hixby's Hotel, and 231 Broadway, occupied by dealers in hardware, clothes, cutlery, umbrellas, &c. Building No. 229, Broadway, occupied by H. J. Bang as a hotel and restaurant, was also destroyed by fire. Loss is $69,000.

NEW YORK, April 6.

Among the losers by the Fulton street fire were George Richmond, boots and shoes, $30,000. Half insured; Brown Bros. clothiers, $15,000. Insured; W. J. Sharp, billiard table-maker, $25,000. Partially insured; James Eusince, Jr., clothier, $25,000. Insured; Wm. M. Griffith, billiard-table maker, $25,000—partially insured.

These parties occupied stores 146, 148, 150 Fulton street building, 202 was also destroyed. It was occupied by Knapp & Sniffen, clothiers; Sherman, corsets, and others.—The Claremont Hotel, in Fulton street, was totally destroyed. Total loss $500,000.

The loss by the Barclay street fire is estimated at $300,000 and may exceed it. Hatfield Taylor loses $75,000, supposed to be insured. A woman is missing, and she is supposed to have been burned. An old man named Steinback was found in one of the buildings, almost dead and taken to the hospital.

There were other fires further up town, but were of no particular consequence.

TREATMENT OF SOUTHERN UNION MEN. The New York Times publishes a more complete account of the fiendish massacres and tortures to which those suspected of fidelity to their country were subjected in Texas during the war than has hitherto appeared. The statements are too shocking to be readily believed, but we have seen refugees who report atrocities committed under their own observation which are not referred to by the correspondent of the Times, and which are, if possible, more disgusting.—Not only were hundreds of worthy men and innocent women and children murdered in cold blood without form of trial or shadow of provocation, but the manner of their butchery was in many cases as disgraceful to human nature as the worst deeds of the Spaniards in the Netherlands or the Sepoys in the Indian rebellion. The guilty men are not only living in peace as good citizens of the United States, with the benefit of the Executive clemency, but some of them are taking active part in the work of reconstruction, and in cheering the President by assurances of their sympathy with his indignation at the Yankee radicals and traitors.

THE BRITISH ARMY. At the present time the following statement of the strength of the various regiments composing the British army may be interesting. It is derived from authentic sources:

	Regiments.	Officers and men.
Life Guards,	2	880
Horse Guards,	1	440
Cavalry of the Line—
Dragoon Guards,	7
Dragoons,	3
Hussars,	13	16,833
Lancers,	12
	28
Horse Artillery,		5,748-5 Brigades.
Foot Artillery,	1	2,976-23 "
Royal Engineers,	1	5,024 "
Military Train,	1	1,817-6 Battalions.
Foot Guards,	3	5,9 3-7 "
Infantry of Line,	110	137,78 -141 "
Army Hospital Corps,		980
Commissariat Staff Corps,	1	602
West India Reg'ts (Black),	4	3,467-4 "
Colonial Corps,	4	4,069-4 "
Total,	157	212,562

This summary does not, we think, include native and other regiments forming part of the Indian army.—[St. John Presbyterian.

THE VETO VETOED. A very amusing incident took place yesterday in the Senate. In the morning's "Intelligencer" was the following despatch, printed in flaming capitals:—

DESPATCH TO THE PRESIDENT—HIS ACTION UNANIMOUSLY ENDORSED.

The following telegram reached us yesterday:—

"KEOKUK, Iowa, Feb. 24, 1866.

"To Andrew Johnson, President of the United States:

"Immense mass meeting held here to-day! Great enthusiasm! One hundred guns!—Your veto message and administration unanimously endorsed!"

Senator Grimes showed that the author of the despatch had not only been opposed to the war, and of course to Andrew Johnson, but was the editor of a Keokuk Copperhead paper so vile that the soldiers of Iowa gutted his office and tumbled his types and presses into the river, having even to cut holes in the ice, in mid-winter, for the purpose!

The President's supporters seem to be all of that sort; but it was a somewhat practical joke for the Iowa Cops to represent themselves as loyal, or as speaking for a loyal community. Doubtless there is not a rebel cannon in the South that would not salute this veto with equal vehemence if opportunity served.—[Washington Chronicle.

VALLANDIGHAM AS THE PRESIDENT'S FRIEND. Mr. Vallandigham made a speech at Dayton, Ohio, last Saturday night, in praise of President Johnson. He said "he had a slight suspicion that just now a political draft on the White House bearing his (Mr. V.'s) name would be as readily honored as one bearing the name of Stevens, Sumner or Schenck." Of the President's speech of the 22d, he said it was a most timely speech, showing not only that he "meant to fight the infernal Thugs who have arrayed themselves against his policy," but that "he was one of the half dozen men in the United States who understand that the devil of fanaticism is to be fought with fire." He had a firm hope that the President would go on as he had begun; and, if he would only reorganize his Cabinet, he should feel sure of it."

UPRISING. We see that some of the supporters of the President's policy speak of the "uprising of the people in its favor."—This is all a mistake. There has been no where any "uprising," except among the the copperheads; and the President had better be "drowned in the depths of the sea" than to have that party rise up in his favor.—[Mansfield (Ohio) Herald.

ARGUMENTS OF THE MEN WHO WOULD DENY CIVIL RIGHTS. The narrow-minded, bigoted and malignant character of the men who are howling so savagely at the bare possibility that a colored man may be recognized as having some of the attributes and rights of humanity, is well illustrated by the following delectable effusion from the New York organ of Satan—appropriately copied by the Portland Advertiser. Such outpourings emanate from a class of men whose minds are filled with a deeper darkness than ever tinged the skin of the blackest Ethiopian. The soul of the "nigger" is as the brightness of day compared to the spirits of such men.

QUESTIONS IN THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

ARE WE TO HAVE NEGROES filling the position of post captains in the United States Navy. The Civil Rights bill says that we are.

SHALL OUR CHILDREN see a negro in the Presidential chair? The Civil Rights bill provides for such a continey.

IS THIS A WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT for white men? The Civil Rights bill says that it is not.

ARE WE TO HAVE NEGROES representing this Government as United States Ministers at the Courts of France and England? The Civil Rights bill says that we are.

SHALL THE NEGRO INTERMARRY with our daughters and take an equal place in our households? The Civil Rights bill says that he shall?

SHALL NEGROES sit in Congress, in the Cabinet and other high stations side by side with white men? The Civil Rights bill says that he may.

SHALL NEGROES INTERMINGLE with our refined ladies in steaming hot theatres, ball rooms and opera houses? The Civil Rights bill declares that they must.

SHALL A NEGRO supersede Grant as General-in-Chief of the U. S. Army? The Civil Rights bill says that he can do so.

IS A NEGRO FIVE TIMES BETTER THAN A WHITE MAN that the former should vote immediately, while the latter has to undergo five years probation if he brings his skill, labor and money from abroad? The Civil Rights bill declares that the negro is five times better.

SHALL THE FARMS OF THE GREAT WEST and the whole country be owned by negroes, and white labor be made subservient to negro proprietorship? The Civil Rights bill provides for this condition af things.

Is it Peace or War?

When Mr. Garrett Davis, speaking in his place as a United States Senator, coolly suggested a coup d'etat to the President, the country listened with very great indifference. People remembered how Mr. Davis came near expulsion from the Senate two years ago, and was only allowed to remain because it was believed that through age and infirmity he was no longer responsible for his garrulous utterances of treason. When The Chicago Times, once suppressed by Gen. Burnside, declared that "if the Rump Congress shall not speedily abandon its seditious practices, it will become the solemn duty of President Johnson to constitute himself the Cromwell of the time and to dissolve the Rump by military power," men men looked in one another's faces and laughed. Even The World, which suggested without using violence, by persistently styling the present Congress "the Rump," attracted little attention by this peculiar feature of its political tactics. It was remarked in the early stages of the Kansas troubles, that the Northern immigrants were slow to believe that their Southern fellow citizens actually meant mischief; that they would fight, upon occasion, has since been pretty well ascertained.

If there is to be a supplement to the Southern rebellion, it would be as well to understand it in season. If there are misguided men in this country who have not learned the lesson of the four years of war just ended, it would be well for them to study the temper of the American people. The World of last Thursday lays down these three propositions:

I. The Radicals are in most deadly earnest. There can be no doubt that the President is. If they pass unconstitutional laws over his veto, he will not feel bound to execute them.

II. But when the President refuses to enforce laws which the Radicals have passed, they will attempt his removal, relying upon the same two-thirds which overruled the veto to conviction impeachment.

III. While twenty-two Senators having a clear right to seats are excluded, the President might fairly question the competency of the court. That he has a majority of the people—meaning thereby the people of the whole country—on his side, there can be no doubt; and he would therefore be supported by a preponderance of physical force.

Are they the friends of Andrew Johnson, who urge him to the brink of such a precipice as this? The American people may listen with a half lazy, half scornful smile, to a wonderful amount of lawless talk; but suppose the talk becomes act! Suppose instead of calling us "mudsills" and threatening to dismember the country, Southern malcontents choose to open with artillery upon Fort Sumter! Readers still remember what happened then. If a President of the United States should "refuse" to execute the laws, should break his official oath "faithfully to execute the office of President," it will be of no avail for such a man to plead in extenuation of his offence, that other part of his oath, in which he engages to "defend the Constitution." The question of constitutionality is by the supposition decided against him by two-thirds of both Houses of Congress. Until that decision is reversed by the Supreme Court, the duty of the President is simply to execute the law. And, if swollen with insolence and adulation, any President should attempt to set himself above the laws, he will be impeached and removed from his office.

We do not say that Andrew Johnson will commit this folly. We do say that the men who try to push him into this gulf of infamy, are not his friends. The American people will be slow to believe that one of their own number meditates the assumption of despotic authority. The first step in that direction, sufficiently marked to indicate indubitably the purpose, would be the signal for such an uprising as followed the flash of the gun that a white-haired man trained upon the fort in Charleston harbor. Four years afterwards that old man had lived to see the Southern Confederacy trampled out of existence, and sent a pistol shot crashing through his own brain. Those men who plot treason now, may ponder his example. If a President, lawfully impeached and removed from office, should attempt to resist the law, there will be but one opinion at the North. The laws must be enforced; whether they touch high or low, they must be maintained; and if Southern rebels and their Northern allies seek to improve the opportunity by inaugurating a supplementary rebellion, then in God's name let it come now and be settled permanently, once and forever, by the men of this generation.—[Press.

BRILLIANT CANVASSERS. Negro Suffrage has been legalized in Wisconsin by the Supreme Court deciding that the canvassers ruled erroneously regarding the adoption of the amendment to the State Constitution. A majority of the people voted for the amendment, but as the Constitution required a "majority of all the votes cast at such election," it was declared by the canvassers that as a majority of those who had voted for State officers had not voted for the amendment, it had failed.

THE PRESIDENT'S VETO. In discussing the President's veto of the Civil Rights Bill. The Baltimore American says:

"We see nothing in the President's objections that, for a moment shakes our convictions as to the justice, propriety and constitutionality of the bill. The powers given by the bill were no more extended than those which were given and exercised under the Fugitive Slave Law for the return of fugitives. That which was done in behalf of Slavery we think could much more righteously be done in behalf of Freedom. On this point the President is at issue with Congress, and with nine-tenths of the party who elected him. The appeal must now be made to the people, and in their verdict we have the fullest confidence.

President Johnson's recent declaration that the "Union party is composed only of men who stand by me" (him,) and that therefore when he says that he desires the success of the Union party he only means the copperheads and bakers' dozen of republicans who sustain him,—is one of the most impudent pronuncíamentos ever put forth by a ruler in a republican Statte. It smacks of the utterances of the tyrants of Europe. "I am the State," arrogantly exclaimed Louis XIV. In this Johnsonian spirit, Napoleon, when he made his brother Louis King of Holland, instructed him "Your first duty is to me; your second to France; your third, to the country you are sent to govern."

So now an accidental President tells two-thirds of Congress and ninety-nine one-hundredths of the Union party who elected him Vice President, that their first and last duty is to him, and that unless they support his new policy they are no longer members of the Union party, but disunionists, while the only Simon-pure Unionists are the copperheads and a few republican camp-followers! —[Lewiston Journal

A DESERVED ACKNOWLEDGMENT. At a recent meeting of the Trustees of Westbrook Seminary, the following vote was passed unanimously:

Voted, That the Hon. Samuel F. Hersey of Bangor, by his recent donation of the sum of Five Thousand Dollars to the funds of Westbrook Seminary, has rendered a most substantial and timely benefit to that Institution, and that the profound thanks of its trustees and friends are hereby tendered to him for this most generous and practical recognition of its needs and claims.

The Banner, remarking on this vote, says

We desire to see his name so employed in connection with the Institution as that it shall be handed down to our children and our children's children with honor for many generations to come.

SAD ACCIDENT. Yesterday morning while a gang of painters were employed in painting the outside of the residence of John Mussey, Esq., at the corner of High and Danforth Streets, the staging gave way and four men were badly injured.

The men on the staging were Mr. Riggs, Alonzo W. Sawyer, Edward Field, Andrew Jones and Albert Trundy. While they were at work the centre block gave way and all the men but Mr. Riggs fell to the ground, a distance of thirty feet or more. Mr. Riggs was at the end of the ladder, and was painting with one hand and holding on by the other. Feeling the ladder give way he clung to the rope, and let himself down by it.

Mr. Trundy was injured the most. One of his legs was broken and he was internally injured, to what extent cannot yet be ascertained: but it is hoped not fatally. Mr. Sawyer was badly injured in his back, as was also Mr. Jones. Mr. Field was injured in the back and ankle. All of the injuries are of a painful character, but it is believed none will prove fatal.—[Press.

—We understand the antimony mine near St. George's Lake on the Magaguadavic river is to be worked this summer. A quantity of the ore has been sent to New York and smelted, and is pronounced superior to any yet discovered in any part of the world except that in France, and equally as good as that. The mine is said to be very extensive, and the gentleman who assayed some of the ore says it is of incalculable value.—The mine is owned by Messrs. Hibbard and D. Gilmore of Magaguadavic, and Jed Frye of New York.—[Calais Advertiser.

FARM FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his well known HOMESTEAD, situated in Hampden 2½ miles from this city.—This is one of the finest locations in the State, both for beauty of prospect and profit in farming. The farm contains from 90 to 100 acres, divided into woodland, pasturage, tillage and grass land; is in good condition, and as it has a variety of soil is well adapted to a mixed system of agriculture: and also having some of the earliest land on the River, it is especially fitted for raising early produce, which being so near market is one of the most profitable branches of farming.

This place is one of the few that have never been sold since the original purchase, but circumstances making it expedient, it is now offered for sale.

Matters at the Capital!

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL PASSED OVER THE PREST'S VETO.

The Closing Debate in the Senate on the Subject.

Treasonable Sentiment of Mr. Davis, of Kentucky.

WASHINGTON, April 7.

THE SENATE HAS PASSED THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL OVER THE VETO BY THIRTY-THREE YEAS TO FIFTEEN NAYS.

WASHINGTON, April 6.

The proceedings in the Senate to-day were more than ordinarily interesting, and were throughout listened to by densely filled galleries, as well as by members of the House of Representatives and others who were privileged to the floor.

Senator Wright, who is still sick, appeared in his seat a short time after the Senate met, but soon retired to a private room, where he remained until the voting took place.

Senator Dixon was expected, but about 3 p m it became known that he would not venture on leaving a sick room to come to the Senate. He was counted among the friends of the veto, although this has been a matter of conjecture.

It was at six o'clock, p. m., before the vote was reached—then the excitement temporarily lulled and the first outbreak of applause was when Senator Morgan voted for the civil rights bill, the veto to the contrary notwithstanding.

The President pro tem. threatened to clear the galleries in consequence of this demonstration, and amid the confusion Senator Morgan received the congratulations of his friends in his immediate vicinity.

When the result was announced—33 for the bill and 15 against, or the required two-thirds—the applause that rose from the galleries was deafening, the friends of the measure being indescribably jubilant.

An order was passed to acquaint the House with the action of the Senate, and to furnish it with the bill together with the President's objections, that it may likewise be reconsidered, as is provided by the Constitution of the United States.

WASHINGTON, April 6.

The amount recommended to be paid the owners of the British ship Maguienne, which was captured by the ship Onward and sent to Key West in 1863 is $8400.

The document sent to Congress to-day by the President, urging a modification of the oath of office, covers a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury containing the names of the collectors of internal revenue and others appointed since the overthrow of the rebellion who have not been able to take literally the oath of July 2d, 1862. Besides these there are a large number of revenue officers in similar positions, all of whom are serving without compensation as their accounts would not be audited by the accounting officers of the government.

The Secretary recounts the peculiar circumstances of their appointment, and urges the necessity then existing of so appointing persons who could not take the oath in order to secure revenue, and hopes that under the circumstances of the case they may be approved by Congress.

The Secretary has no reason to suppose that, among those whose names are presented, there is one who can justly be charged with being instrumental in instigating the rebellion, although a few may have contributed to its support and continuance.

The Postmaster General states that the objections to the oath have not been among the least cause contributing to the failure in re-establishing the mail system of the South. The failure has been owing to the unwillingness of some who might otherwise act to do so on account of the inconvenience and compromise of their positions, which they fear would result from taking the oath, when the majority of their neighbors consist of those who had, in some form, aided the rebellion. To obviate these difficulties, in part, recourse has been had to the appointment of Postmistresses, which has proved to be of doubtful utility to the service, and necessity has also compelled the appointment of very many ignorant persons, incompetent to discharge the duties of their offices. As a remedy for the future, the Postmaster General suggests a modification of the oath, by inserting the words "voluntary" immediately before the word "sought," so that the clause would read "I have never voluntarily sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the function of any office whatever, under any authority or pretended authority in hostility to the United States." 757 mail routes only have been restored, out 2958 which were in operation before the rebellion, and only 2042 postmasters appointed, of whom but 1177 have been qualified, where 8902 were in service before the rebellion.

NEW ORLEANS, April 5.

The crevasse at Baton Rouge is 300 feet in length, and many others are feared below. The whole country, down to Bayou Plaquemine, is expected to be flooded, and it is feared that it will extend down to Bayou Lafourche, comprising the richest sugar and cotton lands in Louisiana.

Crevasses are feared all over the State.

The suit of Mrs. Gaines was before the District Court to-day. The possession of the property, in dispute for twenty years, was plead at the bar, in dispute.

The Methodist Conference is now in session in this city. Bishop Kavanaugh presides to-day, and to-morrow Bishop Early will preside. Many new members have made their appearance.

The press of this city argue that the President's Proclamation abolishes martial law and removes military occupation.

Later additional news from the crevasses says the heavy rains continue, and the whole country will be flooded.

Cotton depressed, by European advices, and prices are 1c lower—Sales to-day 1050 bales—Lowland middling, 34@34½c.

ROCHESTER, N Y, April 6.

The bank panic in this city continues.

A Karnes, a private banker who was not doing a large business in deposits, suspended to-day for want of currency. His friends are confident that he will again soon resume payment.

A run has been made all day upon Powers banking office, but made no impression. He has plenty of money and will keep open until 9 o'clock to-night, and open again at six to-morrow morning to satisfy timid people.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 6.

Bells are ringing, cannon firing, with a display of fireworks in honor of the passage of the civil rights bill over the veto.

NEW YORK, April 6.

It appears that Beatty Brothers, were not defrauded by a member of the firm, but by an uncle of one of the members.

Stocks were higher at the last board.

The steamer Bremen, which leaves for Europe to-morrow, will take out about $300,000 in silver bars.

Thirty-Ninth Congress.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, April 6.

Senate.

Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont, was sworn in.

The following joint resolution in relation to bounties to colored soldiers, passed:

That the omission on muster rolls of the words "Free on or before April 19th, 1861," shall not deprive any colored soldier of bounty to which they are entitled, and which now or may hereafter be withheld by reason of such omission, provided that nothing herein shall be construed so as to entitle soldiers who were not free at date herein specified to receive bounty.

Mr Wade contended against the policy of the President.

Mr Lane responded to some personal remarks of Mr. Wade.

Mr Doolittle wished that the Civil Rights bill could be placed in charge of the Judiciary Committee, to frame one unobjectionable to members of Congress and the President, as he (Mr. Doolittle) was desirous of preserving amicable relations between Congress and the Executive; although he had received instructions from the Legislature of his State to vote for the bill, he should not do so.

Mr Davis opposed the bill and defended the veto; he said that if the bill became a law he should feel compelled to regard himself as an enemy of the Government, and work for its overthrow!

Mr Saulsbury said he should consider the passage of the bill as inaugurating revolution, and that it would lead to bloodshed, war and dissension.

Mr Yates urged Senators to march forward in the performance of their duty, and to to do it now and hereafter.

The vote was then taken—"Shall the bill pass, the President's veto to the contrary notwithstanding?"

Yeas—Messrs. Anthony, Brown, Chandler, Clark, Conness, Cragin, Foster, Grimes, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Lane of Ind, Morgan, Morrill, Nye, Poland, Pomeroy, Ramsay, Sherman, Stewart, Sprague, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade, Willey, Wilson, Yates, Fessenden, Creswell, Edmunds of Vermont—33.

Nays—Messrs. Buckalew, Cowan, Davis, Doolittle, Guthrie, Hendricks, Johnson, Lane of Kansas, McDougall, Nesmith, Norton, Riddle, Saulsbury, Van Wynkle and Wright—15.

Absent—Dixon.

When Mr. Morgan recorded his vote in the affirmative, the galleries applauded very loudly.

The Chair announced, amid great applause, that the bill having received a two-thirds vote, had become a law, but subsequently corrected the inadvertency by stating that the bill having received a two-thirds vote, had passed the Senate.

On motion of Mr Trumbull the Secretary of the Senate was ordered to communicate to the House a copy of the veto message together with the result as above given.

House.

Mr. Lone of Kansas offered a joint resolution for the admission of States lately in rebellion to representaion in Congress on condition of their repudiating the rebel debt, endorsing the federal debt, annulling all ordinances of secession, granting the right of suffrage to such colored people as can read, or who own and pay taxes on $250 worth of property.

Mr. Lane spoke of the necessity of immediate action on the subject of reconstruction to save the Republican party from crumbling to pieces. The resolution was ordered to lie on the table for the present.

At 1 p. m., the veto message was taken up.

The contested election case of Dodge vs. Brooks was taken up.

Mr. Brooks advocated his claims.

After Mr. Brooks had concluded, Mr. Dawes sustained the report of the committee. The latter was interrupted several times by Mr. Marshall and Mr. Brooks—the latter being called to order by the Speaker in one instance.

The amendments were voted down and Mr. Brooks was declared not entitled to a seat by a vote of 84 to 46, and Mr. Dodge was declared entitled to a seat by a vote of 72 to 52.

The oath was administered to Mr. Dodge, and he took his seat.

The motion to reconsider the vote rejecting the bankrupt bill was fixed for consideration on Monday.

A message was received from the President recommending an appropriation to satisfy the claim of the owner of the British ship Maguienne. Referred.

A message was received from the President, covering a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury and Postmaster General suggesting modifications in the oath prescribed by the act of July 6, 1862, expressing his full concurrence in the recommendation, and earnestly commending the subject to Congress. Referred to the judiciary committee.

Adjourned.

DAILY RELIGIOUS SERVICE. The following has been sent us for publication. We hope the meetings may be well attended:

At a regular meeting of the First Baptist Church, held in their chapel April 4th, it was unanimously

Resolved, That we will open our chapel for religious service, from 12 to 1 o'clock each business day of the week, through the season, to all persons of all denominations, who are laboring for the moral and religious improvement of our city.

Resolved, That we do this most cordially, and in a truly catholic spirit, hoping there will be nothing said or done in or out of said meetings to mar the peace of any one who may attend them.

Resolved, That in our opinion no one person except strangers should occupy more than three or five minutes in any one meeting.

The ministers of the city are most respectfully requested to co-operate in this movement, and to give such notice to their congregations as they may deem proper.

The Chapel will be open on Monday next.

SPIRITUALISM. Miss Eliza H. Fuller (Trance Medium) will speak at Pioneer Chapel next Sabbath afternoon and evening. Also the Sabbaths in April. Admission five cents.

—A communication in reference to a railroad to Piscataquis county will appear Monday.

—An alarm of fire at about half pas twelve o'clock this morning was occasioned by the burning of a house belonging to Mr. Finnegan, and a barn belonging to a Mr. McHugh, in Hampden. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

NOVA SCOTIA GOLD. Mr. F. McLaughlin of this city, who has recently returned from the gold district of Nova Scotia, has some fine specimens of the gold-bearing quartz of that region, many of which are plainly rich in the precious metal. Some of our people have recently taken claims there and believe that they will pay well when worked. The Government Commissioner Commissioner of Mines, P. S. Hamilton, Esq., in his neatly published Annual Report says that persons engaged in operating gold mines, "have come to expect large, or at all events profitable returns, and are rarely disappointed."

A GOOD STRIKE. Marshal Farnham, assisted by several of the Deputy Marshals, have succeeded in recovering about $500 worth of the property, embracing nearly all that was stolen recently from the clothing store of the Messrs. Jones on Kenduskeag Bridge. The bulk of it was found concealed in this city, and the balance at Winterport. A small portion is supposed to have been sent to Boston, and it is not improbable that it may also may be recovered. The most of that which was found in this city was found in the house of a person who alleges that he purchased it innocently without any knowledge that it was stolen property. That, however, is for the judgment of a jury. The parties have been bound over in $1000 bonds for appearance at the August term of the Supreme Court. The police are entitled to great credit for their activity and good management in recovering the property.

ACCIDENT. We are pained to learn that Gen. Conner, of Kendall's Mills, broke his leg while stepping from the train at Danville Junction yesterday afternoon. The General, it will be recollected, was severely wounded in the hip about two years since, and afterwards was unfortunate enough to fracture the bones, and for a year and a half laid in a very critical condition. He had nearly recovered, and was considered out of danger when the unfortunate accident occurred. Our informant, Mr. Gray, did not learn how serious the accident might prove.

—We regret to announce the death of S. P. Blake, who died in Pepperell, Mass., on Sunday last, of diptheria. For many years he was the foreman of the Copsecook paper mill in this city, and was well known to our citizens as an active and intelligent business man and a good citizen.—[Gardiner Jour.

CALAIS ELECTION. At the city election on Monday last, Francis Williams, Esq., the Republican candidate was elected without opposition—the "democrats" not having the heart to make a fight.

—A young lady, the daughter of a gentleman of this city, is possessed of a considerable sum of money in her own right, which is invested in stocks of a bank in Skowhegan. A few days since a spruce looking individual presented himself at the counter of the bank in question, and giving his name, inquired concerning the stocks owned by Miss ——, stating that he had recently married that lady, and had called at her request to collect her dividends. The cashier of the bank, not feeling perfectly satisfied with this statement, excused himself from making the payment at that time. The lady has relatives in Skowhegan, and on inquiring of them, he found they were quite unaware of her marriage to anybody, and other parties who were referred to, and who might naturally be expected to have some knowledge of such an event, were equally ignorant. Steps were now taken to have the fellow apprehended; but on searching for him, it was found that he had got wind of the proceedings, and disappeared. Our informant describes him as a good-looking and plausible rascal, and it is not impossible that he may try the same game elsewhere.—[Portland Press.

A little girl four years of age, daughter of Isaac Golder, of this city, was burned to death this (Thursday) forenoon under painful circumstances. She was out near the house at play and gathered up a pile of leaves and set them on fire. Her clothing accidentally caught fire, and before she was discovered and the fire extinguished she was burned in a shocking manner and died soon after, suffering intense agony.—[Lewiston Journal.

—The Universalist Society of Augusta has extended an invitation to Rev. C. R. Moor, of Cambridgeport, Mass., to become its pastor at a salary of $1800 per annum.

—Morrell, of the Gardiner Journal, went to Portland to see the eclipse—and saw it.

—The Portland Argus says recently Mr. A. W. Lewis, of Boothbay, upon opening his store Monday morning, was surprised to find a hole in the floor the size of the stove and the stove lying quiet and cool in the cellar. It had burnt directly through, and singular to say, the flames went out of their own accord.

—The St. Croix Courier says a strange case has come under medical notice in Milltown, Calais. A child being troublesome from teething was given a draught of infused poppies which put it to sleep. This was on Tuesday night week, and at last accounts the child was still sleeping in spite of all efforts to arouse it. The physician entertains hopes that it may recover.

—The St. Croix (New Brunswick) Courier reports that it is said that Mr. David Berry, an old and respectable resident of Eastport, was arrested last week in St. Andrews, on the charge of being a Fenian, but there was no evidence to hold him.

—The Press says that as Mr. Amasa S. Sweetser of Cumberland Centre was engaged in repairing a mill dam on Monday last, his leg was horribly crushed between the edges of two heavy blocks of granite which fell together with great force.

—The Lewiston Journal relates a sad incident which occurred a few weeks since in Durham. A drunken man set out from Bath for home, on one of the coldest nights for the winter. His horse left to himself, took a lumber road leading into the woods, and reaching the end of the road halted. Nearly twenty-four hours after, the unfortunate man was found leaning against a tree and was so badly frozen that both feet and both hands were amputated to save his life. The informant of the Journal states that a brother of the same man was by a singular coincidence so severely frozen the same night in Harpswell, as to be obliged to submit to amputation of some of his limbs.

—The Empress of Mexico has purchased at Jerusalem what is said to be the site of the habitation of the Virgin Mary. The Empress intends to erect a magnificent chateau on the spot.

—In Paris there are 28,760 street lamps, all of which are regularly lighted before the close of day, and burn during the whole night.

—A field of wheat buried under an avalanche in Switzerland for twenty-five years proceeded on its growth as soon as the snow melted.

—The bell which, for forty years, called the students of Williams College, Mass., together, is now in a mission church in Syria, doing good service.

—Mrs. Sigourney published fifty six books during her life, besides more than two thousand articles contributed to nearly three hundred different periodicals.

—A shoemaker in Leeds, England, undertook, lately, for a wager, to eat an uncooked rabit, fur, skin and all. He succeeded, but immediately went into convulsions, which continued for an hour, when he died.

—According to the Home Journal the reason why so many Americans are going abroad, is in the fact that a family can live in England or France on the rent of their house in New York.

—"Husband I hope you have no objection to my being weighed." "Certainly not, my dear, but why do you ask the question?" "Only to see, it you would let me have my way once."

CONSTITUTION

LIFE SYRUP.

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

L

SCROFULA,
STRUMA, GLANDULAR SWELLINGS, ULCERATION, KING'S EVIL, ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM.

This taint (HEREDITARY and ACQUIRED) filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

RHEUMATISM.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of twenty or thirty years standing have been cured.

I

NERVOUSNESS.
Nervous Debility, Shattered Nerves, St. Vitus' Dance, Loss of Power, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering women will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfills more than in promise.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.
Salivation, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Feeling of Weakness, Depression of Spirits.

F

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP
Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases, of the Skin like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

and all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

E

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP
CURES ALL SWELLING OF THE GLANDS, Either of the Face, Neck, or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking, and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

S

All scrofulous persons suffering from general Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia and Dropsey of the limbs, abdomen, and in the female, Dropsey of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort.

Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body, will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife, or operations of any kind.

Y

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart, as palpitation, Disease of the Valves, producing a grating or filing sound, Dropsey of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ (persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart), will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

BROKEN DOWN AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS SUFFERING FROM INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, PAIN IN THE BACK, LOSS OF MEMORY, FOREBODINGS, HORROR OF CALAMITY, FEAR OF DISEASE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DRY, HOT SKIN AND EXTREMITIES, WANT OF SLEEP, RESTLESSNESS, PALE, HAGGARD COUNTENANCE, AND LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

R

FOR ALL FORMS OF Ulcerative Diseases,

Either of the NOSE, THROAT, TONGUE, SPINE, FOREHEAD or SCALP, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face depending upon the diseased action of the liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP, will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In the diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Languor, Dizziness, Indigestion, Weak Stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, will be relieved by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

U

As A GENERAL BLOOD PURIFYING AGENT THE LIFE SYRUP STANDS UNRIVALLED BY ANY PREPARATION IN THE WORLD.

THE RICH AND POOR
are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD
Produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death is the result.

Little Feet.

Little feet so glad and gay,
Making music all the day;
Tripping merrily along,
Filling all my heart with song:
Well I love your music sweet:
Patter, patter, little feet.

Sometimes sorrows, I would know
Just what way these feet must go;
Praying oft that all be fair,
No thorns, no roughness anywhere:
That for'rs may spring their steps to greet,
Patter, patter, little feet.

But then I think that some have trod,
Through thorns and briars the nearer God.
Though weak in faith, still I would dare
To offer up the earnest prayer,
That Christ would choose whate'er is meet:
Patter, patter, little feet.

I press them to my hands to night,
And kiss them with a new delight
Believing that where'er they go,
My tender Lord will lead them, so
They'll walk, at length, the golden street,
Patter, patter, little feet.

AN INCIDENT FROM THE LIFE OF REV. DUNCAN DUNBAR. A poor woman of his congregation was unable to secure a house unless some one became responsible for the rent. She came to Mr. Dunbar as to her best earthly friend, and he cheerfully gave his name as security to her landlord. Some one suggested that he was not sufficiently cautious, as it was very doubtful whether she could ever meet the amount. "I cannot help that," he replied. "It may be as you fear, and I may have to pay her rent in addition to my own at quarter-day. In that case, I shall look to the Father of the fatherless and the Husband of the widow.—He will take care of her and us too."

The time rolled around and the rent became due. The widow came in great trouble to say that it was out of her power to meet the demand. She was not insensible to the obligation, and wept bitterly at her failure. But Mr. Dunbar comforted her by saying that he would cheerfully pay the amount, and that God, who knew his motives, would send it back in some way. He put the money in her hand, and said, "If you can ever pay it, you may do so; if not, never let it trouble you, for it shall not trouble me."

Very soon after this, Mr. J——, an attendant on his preaching, but not then a professor of religion, called at his house.—He said pleasantly, "I come to pay a little money I owe you, Mr Dunbar.

"My dear sir," he replied, "that cannot be, for you and I haven't had any dealings together.

Mr. J—— then told him that some time before, he had sent out a small venture in a ship going to China, and had said to Mrs. J—— at the time, "I will give one-tenth of the profit, if there be any, to Mr. Dunbar;" and he handed him just the amount of the widow's rent! Mr. Dunbar then related the whole circumstance, and said, "You see how easy such things are to God. The money for that poor widow's rent was on its way from China."

One of those nuisances, an itinerant pedler, who make a practice of calling at people's residences and insisting upon seeing the mistress of the house, asking for her by name and refusing to send their name or message by the servant, was served nicely the other day by a lady whom he had thus imposed upon.

Descending to her drawing room, to her indignation she found an erasive soap pedler in waiting, and checking his voluble description of his wares she told him she had no occasion for them.

"But madam, permit me.—you have—"

"Sir!"

"Will you allow me to take out this spot in your hall carpet?" showing one which was apparent and too conspicuous.

"Yes sir!" and following directions the servant was dispatched for a bowl of warm water, when down on hands and knees went Mr. Soapseller, and after about twenty minutes of hard labor did succeed in removing the offending spot which had more than once suggested the necessity of a new carpet.

Having finished, he rose from his knees triumphantly. There madam, the spot is removed.

"Yes, so I perceive."

"Well, and now how much soap do you want?"

"I wish for none, as I told you before."

"But madam I have removed the spot from your carpet!"

"Certainly, but at your own solicitation, and now you will oblige me by removing yourself. John show this man the way out."

Mr. Pedler left, quoting one of Lady Macbeth's speeches—something about a "d—d spot."

A gentleman who had determined to retire from the cares of business and indulge himself in a mania for amateur farming had a very attractive estate—on paper—presented to his notice by a broker. There was the usual "substantial dwelling house, large barn and out buildings, unfailing spring of water, thrifty fruit trees, rich pasture and arable land," &c.; situated of course, "in the immediate vicinity of school houses, and all the advantages of civilization." The merchant was charmed with the description and was on the point of purchasing, when he happened to meet an old farmer acquaintance whom he suddenly remembered, lived in the neighborhood of his contemplated investment. After the usual inquiries on the merchant's part in regard to weather, prospect of crops, &c., and the farmer's as to the proper method of disposing of the 'coopons' on some government bonds the former asked—

"Do you know G——'s place up your way?"

"Knew it! Yaas, guess I do; lives 'bin two miles o' my place. Dreffle shiftless critter, tho'; hasn't got much of anything on his farm except a heavy mortgage. Gobin to sell him out putty soon, I guess."

"Indeed!" said the merchant thoughtfully; "mismanaged, I suppose—don't attend to his business. Splendid piece of land, though, is it not?"

"Wall, might be for some purposes; our selectmen did think of buying it once for a cemetery, but the sile was so orful poor and sandy that nothin' ever came up that was planted in it, and they were afraid there'd never be any resurrection there!"

The broker lost his sale of that farm.—Commercial Bulletin.

Anticipate the Cholera!!

AS the ASIATIC CHOLERA has appeared on our shores, and will no doubt visit all parts of our land, we advise:—

First—All to be at peace with yourselves.
Second—Be at peace with your stomach.
Third—Be at peace with the world; but, above all, be at peace with God.
Fourth—Be clean—inside and outside.
Fifth—Be temperate in all things; use no strong drinks, use no profane language.
Sixth—Don't hurry; take time to eat; if your teeth want mending, away to the Dentists and have them in a condition to masticate your food; take time to rest; think, pray, be good natured, honest, love your country and hate treason.

All Medical Men, both in Europe and America, who have expressed an opinion in writing, agree in one feature of the Asiatic Cholera. Its first appearance is like the common Diarrhœa, and if not checked in season its discharges assume the appearance of rice water.—Then Death almost inevitably follows. We argue, that—"An Ounce of Preventive is better than a Pound of Cure."

Therefore, be wise, ye living men and women, and listen while I speak of the power of

Hill's Remedy

TO CURE THE DIARRHŒA,

AND ALL FORMS OF BOWEL COMPLAINTS!

☞ THIS REMEDY IS NOT QUACK MEDICINE. ☜ It was compounded by a regular Scientific Practitioner in Old England. It is made up of the fundamentals of the MATERIA MEDICA. Hence its GREAT virtue. I have given it to the aged of eighty years and the infant of months, with the same happy results.

More than 2000 Soldiers Used It

While quartered at Augusta, for the Diarrhœa, and I did not learn that it failed to relieve in a single case. Thousands of bottles were sent to the boys in the army, and many of them when they read this circular will endorse it at once as A SAFE AND RELIABLE REMEDY. I could fill pages with living testimonials of the virtues of this Medicine.

None Genuine unless my name is blown in the bottle.

125,000 Bottles have gone into the Market.

Referring to the annual statement of the Company and the dividend of $2,975,000 declared February 1, 1866, we present herewith some illustrations of the system by which it was allotted to policy holders.

The Company recognizes the principle that AMPLE SECURITY is a paramount consideration in Life Insurance, and neither in form or amount will any dividend be declared incompatible with that principle.

In addition to the proper reserve for re-insurance of outstanding risks, there still remains an undivided surplus of $1,200,000

DIVIDENDS will be declared annually hereafter, and may be used either to purchase more insurance, in reduction of premiums, or on "paid up" policies, they may be drawn in CASH on the date of each policy in any year.

EXAMPLES,

Showing the Annually Increasing Dividends in this Company on Life Policies of $10,000 each, other amounts in same proportion.

*The annual dividends on these policies exceed the annual premiums. So that a policy holder, by applying his dividends to the payment of future premiums, not only avoids all further outlay, but his policy annually increases in amount.

The dividends on policies of a more recent date, including those issued last year, may be applied in like manner to the full extent of their accumulations.

Insurers who do not thus apply their dividends, have the full benefit of the large additions to their policies, as shown in the above table, and may, at any future period use such portions of their dividends in the payment of any one or more premiums, as they may desire.

☞ It will be noticed as a peculiarity of our system, that while the dividends are moderate at the beginning, as all dividends must be which are declared upon just and equitable principles, yet they rapidly increase each year as the policy grows older, so that eventually the insurance becomes paid up in full.

Endowmet Policies,

Payable either at death or to the persons insured, on their arriving at specified ages.

This favorite form of insurance or investment is of a more recent date, and the following examples will suffice to show their results thus far in the MUTUAL LIFE:

No. of Policy.	When issued.	Age at Issue.	Amnt	Term.	Premium	Prem. how paid.	Total Premium.	Dividend	Amon't paid.
19,049	Mar. 11, 1858	42	$5000	Pay at 50	$622 87	A.	$4,982 26	$1,602 59	$ 602 59
17,826	Jan. 14, 1857	51	5000	" 60	263 41	S. A.	4,987 97	1,637 01	6634 01
18,905	July 1, "	47	2000	" 55	129 09	S. A.	2,065 44	662 80	2662 80

All of the above policies have been paid to the owners, and it will be seen that they receive a SURPLUS above all they have paid to the Company, with compound interest at six per cent., and no charge whatever for expenses or cost of insurance meanwhile.

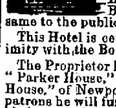
NICHOLS HOUSE.



The undersigned having leased, for a long term, and thoroughly renovated and refitted the NICHOLS HOUSE (late "Dwinel House") in Bangor, has this day re-opened the same to the public accommodation.

This Hotel is centrally located, and in close proximity with the Boats and Cars.

The Proprietor has had a long experience in the "Parker House," of East Corinth, and the "Shaw House," of Newport, and flatters himself that to all patrons he will furnish an agreeable and comfortable home. Every effort and expense will be used to make this House as popular and attractive as any in this section of the State. Having lately purchased the large and enterprising

Livery Establishment

Lately owned by CALEB BILLINGS, Esq., the same will be carried on in all its departments in connection with said Hotel. The undersigned will be ready to furnish teams of all descriptions, and will extend all accommodations to those who may favor him with their calls.

☞ Coaches in readiness for any business at all hours.

Stages leave this House daily for all parts of the country.

☞ Orders may be left at the House, or at the Stable office, where a reliable man will hereafter be found to attend upon the wants of customers.

DR. LAROOKAH'S Sarsaparilla Compound,

For the Speedy and Permanent Cure of Liver Complaints, Scrofula or King's Evil, Eruptions, and all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches and Boils; Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains in the Bones, Side and Head; for the various Weaknesses to which Females are liable; Dyspepsia, Debility, Emaciation, Dropsy, and all diseases resulting from or in an impure state of the Blood.

IT is invaluable to Nervous Sufferers, and a positive cure for Palsy arising from the abuse of Mercury or Lead.

It is a Tonic as well as an Alterative, and a sure protection from attacks that originate in change of climate, season or life.

LIVER COMPLAINTS and their combined symptoms, such as Lumbago, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Bilious Eruptions, &c. When caused by Scrofula taint, this compound is a most effectual remedy.

DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, is often caused by Scrofula, which deranges the stomach, and renders it unhealthy. Indigestion is not always caused by Scrofula, when it is, this Sarsaparilla Compound is a ready cure.

NEURALGIA, HEADACHE and various disorders of the nervous system frequently arise from a low state of the constitutional health, and are much relieved and often cured by this powerful remedy.

ERYSIPELAS, Boils, Tumors, or Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Sores, &c. Moderate doses three times a day will usually effect the cure of the above complaints, but often requires considerable time.

Price one dollar per bottle. Six bottles for five dollars.

DR. LAROOKAH'S ALL-CONQUERING INDIAN VEGETABLE PULMONIC SYRUP,

A Sovereign Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat & Lungs.

Unsurpassed by any Medical Discovery in the World. DR. E. R. KNIGHTS, Proprietor.

Melrose, Mass.

Price 50 Cents and $1.00 per Bottle.

DR. KNIGHTS' Oriental Hair Restorer.

After a long series of experiments, this article, as it is now offered to the public, is believed to be the most perfect of its kind which science has ever devised. No pains have been spared to produce what has so long been demanded by thousands, who, from sickness or other causes, have become prematurely grey; and others, who, in the sere and yellow leaf of life, would retain, as far as possible, the semblance of youth. DR. KNIGHTS' ORIENTAL HAIR RESTORER, after a few applications, restores grey or faded hair to its original color, and is the only preparation of the kind upon which the public can place any reliance. It has never been known to fail in a single instance, and is totally unlike the thousand and one so-called Hair Restorers, by which so many have been egregiously deceived.

It is delightfully perfumed, gives the hair a rich and glossy appearance, promotes its luxuriant growth, and will not soil the skin, scalp, or any article of apparel.

PRICE 75 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

WOMAN!

FEMALE complaints and all those painful irregularities and obstructions which are the special forerunners of change of life, are speedily relieved by the use of this medicine. In truth, a more genial, healthful influence is felt from the first day of its use, and its regular and persevering employment for a short time restores females who are suffering from any of the above causes to sound health, and counteracts any tendency to premature old age, and all the consequent evils that flow from a neglected or improperly treated system. Every woman can be her own physician, and thereby save herself many times the cost of this invaluable medicine, by following the directions which accompany each bottle. Barrenness is generally the result of some disease or derangement of the system, and when this medicine is used according to the directions, a healthy conception will be the result. Those who have been childless for years, and have used this medicine, have been made happy mothers of healthy children. Thousands of females who have been troubled with profuse menstruation, or with suppressed menstruation, have been entirely cured by the use of this medicine. Those who have been troubled with Leucorrhœa, Too Profuse Menstruation, Irregular or Painful Menstruation, Chronic Inflammation of the Uterus or Womb, Ulceration of the Uterus or Womb, Prolapsus Uteri, or Falling of the Womb, Chronic Inflammation of the Bladder, Kidneys, or Neighboring Organs, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Sick Headache, Spinal Weakness, Hysterics, Pain in the Back, Dragging Down Pains, Pain in the Side, Nervous Tremblings, Sinking Spells, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Palpitation of the Heart, Female Weakness, Blotches, Pimples, Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Eyeballs, Dizziness, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Female Decline, Consumption, Dropsy, Dropsical Swellings, Scrofula, Erysipelas, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Cancerous Humors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, Chronic Diarrhœa, Piles, Dysentery, Kidney Complaint, Dropsy, Gravel, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Female Irregularities, and all the fearful train of diseases that follow in the train of Secret Habits of Youth, this medicine will cure. Females in the first stages of pregnancy will find it a most invaluable preparation, and during the whole period of gestation will relieve the nausea and sickness usually attendant upon that condition of the system. Females who are approaching the extreme old age, will find it a most valuable medicine in the discharge of its functions.

Strength is the glory of manhood and womanhood.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
